

1 EXT. PRE-TITLE INTRO

Night. A small motor boat with a single light slowly approaches an island. Its driver stands at the wheel while another figure sits hunched in the stern. The boat circles alongside the cliffs in the flickering dark until it reaches a cove.

AERIAL SHOT: THE BOAT COMING INTO VIEW - CAMERA MOVES TOWARD THE BOAT AND CIRCLES AROUND IT TO REVEAL THE CLIFF.

The hunched figure turns to look out to sea before looking fixedly at the shore.

POV: CAMERA PANS FIRST LEFT OUT TO SEA WHERE THE HORIZON IS BARELY VISIBLE IN THE DARKNESS. THEN BACK TO THE CLIFF WHERE IT STAYS AS THE BOAT CONTINUES ON ITS WAY, THE CAMERA ROLLING WITH THE MOVEMENT OF THE SEA.

CAPTAIN
You'll be safe for now.

The cliff ends at a small, rocky cove. The boat heads for shore and approaches a stony spit of land.

WIDE: FROM THE FRONT OF THE BOAT AS IT BEACHES.

The passenger climbs out and stands on a rocky outcrop, at the foot of a staircase carved into the cliff-face.

CLOSE UP: FEET PADDLING THROUGH THE SHALLOWS TO THE SHORE, THEN TURNING 180°.

The passenger faces the sea and watches the boat head back out into open water.

WIDE: THE PASSENGER AND LAND RETREATING.

On its return journey, the boat picks up speed, its captain clearly relishing the expanse of water.

WIDE: FROM THE FRONT OF THE BOAT AS IT SPEEDS AWAY.
